

April is NATIONAL LIFE MONTH

By entering and participating in this event, you are expressly authorizing this organization to take photographs, create audio/visuals, and other materials using you or your family's images and likenesses for promotional and educational purposes. You understand that your consent is freely given as a public service to this organization without expectation of payment and you release this organization from any and all liability which might arise from the use of such materials. Should you decline consent, you must inform a staff member at your earliest convenience.

